Newsletter - April 2003

Club Meeting ~ March 11, 2003

Highpoint Sign-up and the Work Sign-up Book were distributed. If you can't attend a meeting, please check with Terri Rock or Dianne Doll to get signed up before the show season starts. There is no charge for High Point, but you have to sign up for it.

The club has new bleachers! Thanks to Arlene Kirssin and Jerry Rock who found out that Bobby's in O'Fallon is closing and sold bleachers for $50/each. The club bought two – in really good shape – good work Arlene & Jerry! They are checking into poles and lights from Bobby's also.

Remember the Arena Work Dates ~ set up for April 5th and April 12th from 9am to whenever. Jerry discussed having either a bonfire afterwards or a weenie roast. We'll have something for the workers.

Don't forget the Tack Swap/Sale date is scheduled for April 19th with a rain date of April 26th from 10am to 2pm. This is a great opportunity to clean out the tack room to get rid of the good stuff you don't use any more to make room for the good stuff you'll buy at the Swap/Sale!

The Coggins Clinic was held on March 15th with a good turn out from club members. Thanks to Dr. Bristow from the Greenville Veterinary Clinic for providing club members with Coggins and vaccinations. It turned out to be a pretty nice day for the clinic.
