Newsletter - June 2003

Club Meeting ~ May 13, 2003

The Pleasure Show scheduled for May 10th was canceled is rescheduled for October 11, 2003. Those signed up to work on May 10th should work the October 11th show. If there is a conflict, please get with Terri Rock now to reschedule for a different show while there are still openings. The Game Show was held on May 24th with the exception of the Trot Barrels and Key Hole Races. Those will be added to the end of the next Game Show – June 21st. If you are going for High Point, make sure you can stay and add to your totals.

A trench was dug along the Southwest end of the show grounds for the electric line going out to the pole. Please use caution and keep your horse clear of the new, soft dirt. The extra light was great during the last show! Fundraisers were discussed. Please let Peggy Spilker know if you have any good ideas. Call her at (618) 345-5743 or call Terri Rock at (618) 632-8060. Don't forget to save your wormer boxes ~ All Farnham wormers qualify! (Zimectrin, Rotectin I & II, Ivercare, etc.)

Tami Lange is hosting the Annual Memorial Day Trail Ride May 31st at her place once again, starting from 10AM to whenever. A special thanks to our sponsor, Landshire Farms for providing the sandwiches. Call Dianne at (618) 644-3655 for more information.

NOTES: I saw a great example of showmanship in the Youth Pole class. KAYLA KEETON was riding her mare, STAR, who must have thought it was a bucking bronco class. Sue timed it, Kayla lasted for more than 8 seconds, almost doing her rodeo sidesaddle. Kayla calmed her horse down, then proceeded to ride a flawless pattern. Of course it was no time, so she got no ribbon, but she earned a lot of respect. Kayla, you have a lot of class! She stuck with her horse, then used the class for training. What a great example of what we hope our children learn and display in life! At the same show, our fearless leader, JERRY ROCK disqualified himself from the trot poles class because he may have broken into a canter through his pattern. It makes me proud to say I belong to this club! Winning is fun, but it definitely isn't everything! You are both CLASS ACTS!
